

Important Announcement

Data entries by candidates regarding their domicile at the time of initial registration for MDCAT 2020 and presently being displayed along with the MDCAT result are not independently verified or represent a binding statement of domicile. Hence these may be ignored by the admitting universities for purposes of admissions and domicile verification may be undertaken based on data provided by candidates directly to the admitting universities in their applications for admission.