

Pakistan Medical Commission

“Public Announcement”

Process for Inactivation & Re-Activation of License

(17th March, 2021)

➤ Inactivation

- The Doctor at the time of intimating their status for in-activation must have an active status and properly renewed license
- On the status becoming in-active the practitioner not to be charged renewal fee for the period of in activation
- During in-activation a practitioner may undergo CME activities.
- Practitioner shall not be allowed to practice in Pakistan if status is Inactive.
- If the Licensee applies for the status of inactivation, the remaining validity of the License will be carried forwarded.

➤ Re-activation

- The re-activation will be done immediately on application.
- The validity period of the license remaining at the time of in-activation shall be added to the validity period from the date on which license is activated.
- A practitioner shall be required to re-validate their license accordingly and CME's completed during in-activation shall be given credit for towards re-validation.

To apply for Inactivation & Re-Activation of License Click Here.